

TÄLLBERG FOUNDATION

Who served on the jury 2018?

The jury, appointed by the Tällberg Foundation's Board of Directors, selects the Eliasson Global Leadership Prize winners. Jury members, who are global leaders in their own right, are drawn from a wide variety of national, cultural, and professional backgrounds; jury membership is substantially renewed every year. Each jury develops its own criteria within the broad purposes that have been laid out by the Board.

Defne Ayas

Curator, educator, and publisher in the field of visual art; Board Member, Tällberg Foundation; Turkey/Netherlands

Abdelkader Benali

Writer, television maker, literary curator and honorary fellow at the University of Amsterdam; Morocco and The Netherlands

Vishakha Desai

Senior Advisor for Global Affairs to the President of Columbia University and Senior Research Scholar at the School of International and Public Affairs, Columbia University, USA

Gabriela Cuevas Barron

Senator of the Mexican Republic and President of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, Mexico

Aiko Doden

NHK Senior commentator on International Affairs and NHK World Senior Producer, Japan

Muni Figueres

Board Member, Tällberg Foundation and Former Ambassador of Costa Rica to the United States

Scott Miller

Chief Executive Officer at Core Strategy Group and Co-Founder of Sawyer/Miller Strategic Consulting Group, US

Alan Stoga

Senior Advisor, Kissinger Associates; President, Zemi Communications; Chairman, Tällberg Found

Carole Wainaina

Asst. Secretary-General for HR, United Nations from 2014-2017; COO, Africa 50 Infrastructure Fund, Morocco

Jury process leader

Tom Cummings

Jury Process Leader; Board Member, Tällberg Foundation and Founder, Leading Ventures, The Netherlands